Testemunhos

Manifestações de rua, por exemplo, dar o braço, eu tenho muita dificuldade - como as pessoas da minha geração - porque nunca fizemos isso.

..... IRIS, MULHER CIS, LÉSBICA, 70-74 ANOS

Para o meu pai havia três palavras importantes: Deus, pátria e família. Odiava tudo o que era homossexual. Um dia perguntou-me: "Tu és homossexual?" Olhei-o frontalmente: "Sim, pai. Sou o seu filho homem mais velho, e sou homossexual." E o meu pai: "Anda cá. Dá-me um abraço. Porque se eu não te compreender, que sou o teu pai e o teu maior amigo, ninguém, filho, te vai compreender." Foi talvez o momento mais bonito de toda a minha vida.

O pré 25 de Abril realmente resumiu-se ao meu pavor e à minha angústia de eu ser aquilo que as pessoas me chamavam na rua e que eu absolutamente, liminarmente, rejeitava.

Nos anos 50, 60, 70 as coisas não eram iguais àquilo que são hoje, de forma que até para mim próprio eu tinha que esconder aquilo que eu era, aquilo que eu sentia. [...] Estou casado com outro homem. Nós já estamos juntos há mais de 20 anos, mas ninguém da minha família sabe. Os meus amigos, os meus colegas não sabem. A família dele também não.

Testimonials

Public demonstrations of affection, for example, walking arm in arm, I find it very difficult – just like other people from my generation - because we've never done that.

..... IRIS, CIS WOMAN, LESBIAN, 70-74 YEARS OLD

FEBRUARY IS LGBTQI+ HISTORY MONTH.
REMEMBER. TELL. CELEBRATE.

For my father there were three important words: God, Nation and the Family. He hated everything homosexual. One day he asked me: "Are you gay?" I looked at him straight in the eye: "Yes, dad. I'm your eldest male son and I'm gay." And my father: "Come here. Give me a hug. If I don't understand you, as your father and as your closest friend, nobody will understand you, son." It was perhaps the most beautiful moment of my entire life.

..... TOBIAS, CIS MAN, GAY, 75-79 YEARS OLD

FEBRUARY IS LGBTQI+ HISTORY MONTH.
REMEMBER. TELL. CELEBRATE.

Before the Revolution it was really about my fear and anguish at being what people called me in the street and which I absolutely, outrightly rejected.

..... JÉSSICA, TRANS WOMAN, BISEXUAL, 65-69 YEARS OLD

FEBRUARY IS LGBTQI+ HISTORY MONTH.
REMEMBER. TELL. CELEBRATE.

In the 50s, 60s and 70s things weren't the same as they are today, so even for myself I had to hide what I was, what I felt. [...] I'm married to another man. We've been together for over 20 years, but nobody in my family knows. My friends, my colleagues don't know. His family doesn't know either.

Homossexuais no Estado Novo

São José Almeida

SINOPSE

Esta é uma primeira tentativa de abordagem do que foi a realidade dos homossexuais em Portugal durante praticamente todo o século XX, ou seja, desde que a jovem Primeira República, enquadrada pela psiquiatria, coloca sob a alçada da lei os crimes contra a natureza até que estes o deixam de ser, em 1982. O que era ser homossexual em Portugal? O que é viver uma condição estigmatizada e estigmatizante, em que não há identidade, tão-só uma afetividade e uma sexualidade, quase sempre clandestinas?

De memória: História das lutas feministas e LGBTQIA+ em Portugal

Rita Aires e Teresa Teixeira (org.)

SINOPSE

De Memória: História das lutas feministas e LGBTQIA+ em Portugal é um livro publicado recentemente em acesso aberto pela Gentopia (Associação para a Diversidade e Igualdade de Género), que se assume como “uma proposta aberta, em constante construção e (des)actualização” para colmatar esta lacuna e retirar da sombra as lutas feministas e pelos direitos LGBTQIA+.

Este é já o segundo número da colecção DiverGentes, tendo sido o primeiro volume dedicado a um não-glossário com termos sobre identidades de género e sexualidade.

Homossexualidade e Resistência no Estado Novo

Homossexualidade e Resistência no Estado Novo

Raquel Afonso

SINOPSE

Nesta investigação, que cruza uma recolha exaustiva de testemunhos reais a um sólido trabalho científico, aborda-se a visão da homossexualidade durante o salazarismo. Numa síntese perfeita de História e Antropologia, visitamos o Estado Novo nos seus parâmetros estatais, a partir de três eixos centrais e que fazem o seu fundo científico: a diferença de tratamento devido à classe social; o eixo do não-dito, e a visão da sexualidade a partir da referência do masculino.

Older Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Trans People.

Andrew King [et al.] (Eds.)

Abstract

What does it mean to grow older as a lesbian, gay, bisexual or trans (LGBT) person? What gaps in knowledge about LGBT ageing remain? This timely and innovative book reports on a project funded by the Economic and Social Research Council which aimed to address gaps in knowledge about older LGBT people and their experiences of ageing. The book discusses the project and contains chapters either specially commissioned or written by leading researchers and activists in the field.

Informed by a range of theoretical perspectives, empirical research studies, critical observations as well as lived experiences, this book explores areas of LGBT ageing that have been under-studied.

Queer. A Graphic History

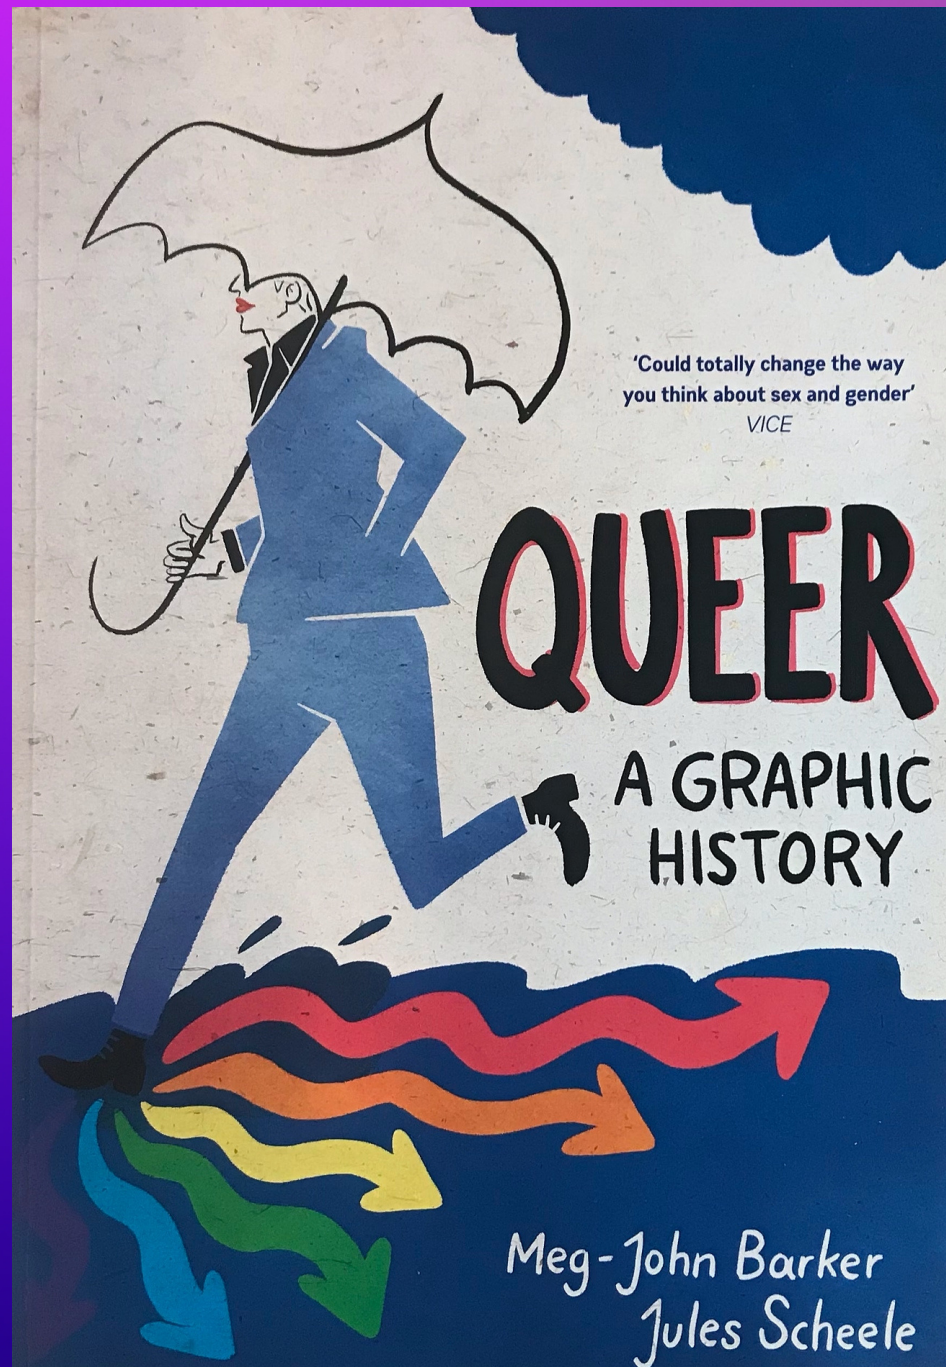

Sara I. Magalhães e Conceição Nogueira (Cord.)

Abstract

Activist-academic Meg-John Barker and cartoonist Jules Scheele illuminate the histories of queer thought and LGBTQ+ action in this groundbreaking non-fiction graphic novel.

From identity politics and gender roles to privilege and exclusion, Queer explores how we came to view sex, gender and sexuality in the ways that we do; how these ideas get tangled up with our culture and our understanding of biology, psychology and sexology; and how these views have been disputed and challenged.

Along the way we look at key landmarks which shift our perspective of what's 'normal' - Alfred Kinsey's view of sexuality as a spectrum, Judith Butler's view of gendered behaviour as a performance, the play Wicked, or moments in Casino Royale when we're invited to view James Bond with the kind of desiring gaze usually directed at female bodies in mainstream media.

An Archive of Feelings

Ann Cvetkovich

Abstract

In this bold new work of cultural criticism, Ann Cvetkovich develops a queer approach to trauma. She argues for the importance of recognizing—and archiving—accounts of trauma that belong as much to the ordinary and everyday as to the domain of catastrophe. An Archive of Feelings contends that the field of trauma studies, limited by too strict a division between the public and the private, has overlooked the experiences of women and queers. Rejecting the pathologizing understandings of trauma that permeate medical and clinical discourses on the subject, Cvetkovich develops instead a sex-positive approach missing even from most feminist work on trauma. She challenges the field to engage more fully with sexual trauma and the wide range of feelings in its vicinity, including those associated with butch-femme sex and aids activism and caretaking.

To Survive on This Shore

Jess T. Dugan, Vanessa Fabbre

Abstract

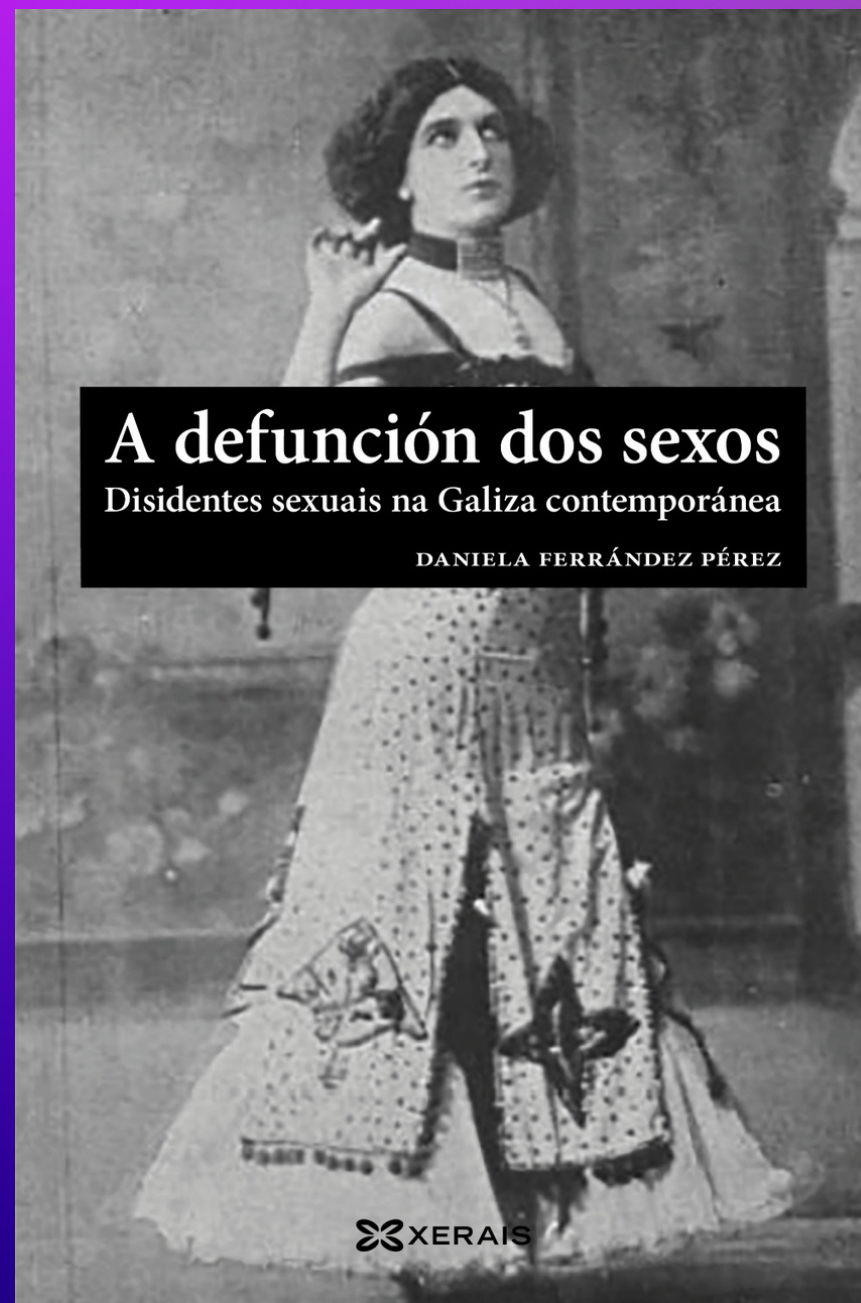

For over five years, photographer Jess T. Dugan and social worker Vanessa Fabbre traveled throughout the United States creating To Survive on this Shore: Photographs and Interviews with Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Older Adults. Seeking subjects whose lived experiences exist within the complex intersections of gender identity, age, race, ethnicity, sexuality, socioeconomic class, and geographic location, they traveled from coast to coast, to big cities and small towns, documenting the life stories of this important but largely underrepresented group of older adults. The featured individuals have a wide variety of life narratives spanning the last ninety years, offering an important historical record of transgender experience and activism in the United States. The resulting monograph provides a nuanced view into the struggles and joys of growing older as a transgender person and offers a poignant reflection on what it means to live authentically despite seemingly insurmountable odds.

Older Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Adults: Identities, Intersections and Institutions

Andrew King

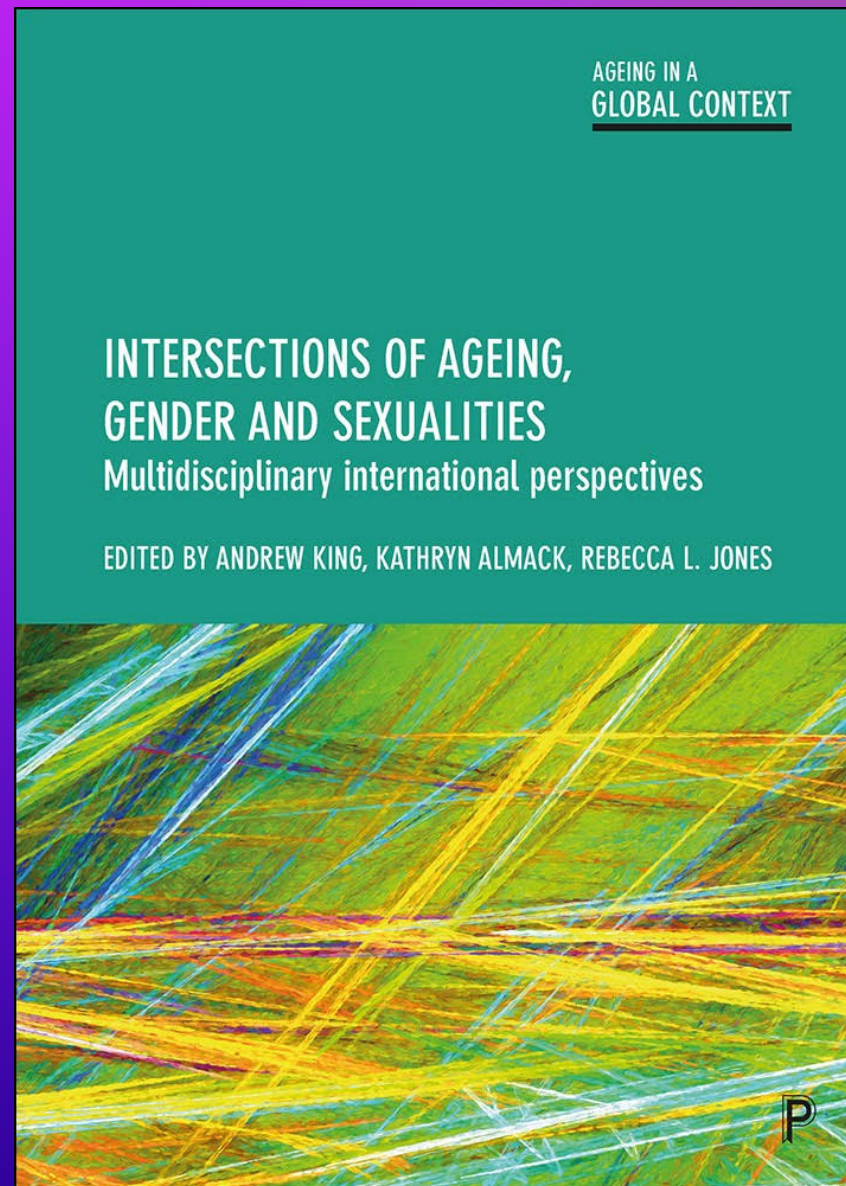

Abstract

Andrew King's book engages with theory, history, social research and social policy, as well as everyday experiences, to offer a cutting-edge analysis of the factors to be taken into account to understand older lesbian, gay and bisexual lives. It offers a vital contribution to our understandings of ageing sexualities, their links to other forms of inequality and how we might respond to them. It is a must-read for anyone interested in lesbian, gay and bisexual lives or ageing.' - Brian Heaphy, University of Manchester, UK.

Intersections of Ageing, Gender and Sexualities: Multidisciplinary International Perspectives

Andrew King, Kathryn Almack, Rebecca L. Jones (eds.)

Abstract

With an increasingly diverse ageing population, we need to expand our understanding of how social divisions intersect to affect outcomes in later life. This edited collection examines ageing, gender and sexualities from multidisciplinary and geographically diverse perspectives and looks at how these factors combine with other social divisions to affect experiences of ageing. It draws on theory and empirical data to provide both conceptual knowledge and clear 'real-world' illustrations, and includes section introductions to guide the reader through the debates and ideas.

Envelhecimento, Género e Sexualidades

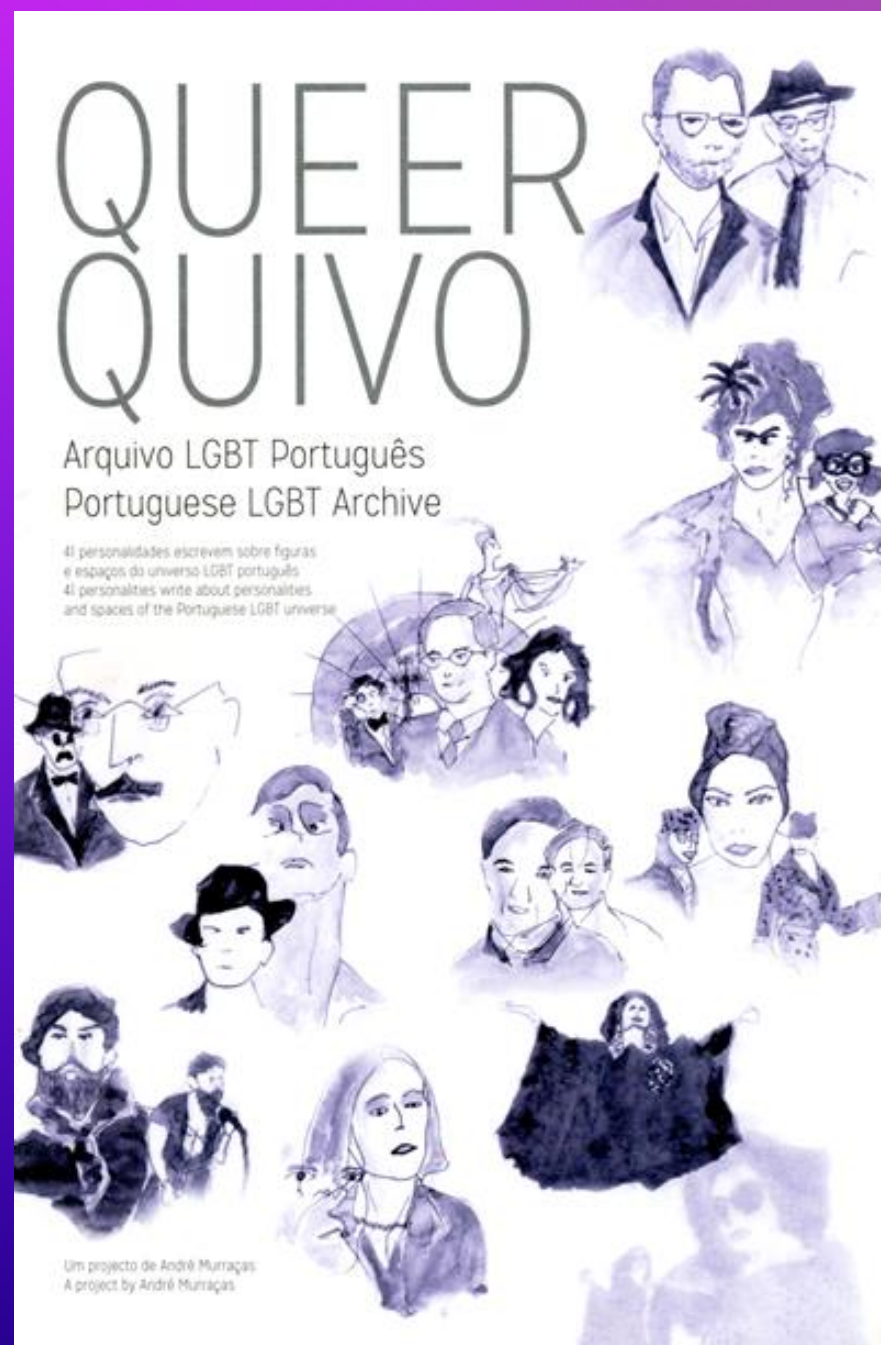

Sara I. Magalhães e Conceição Nogueira (Cord.)

SINOPSE

O envelhecimento da população mundial é uma evidência e, na conjuntura atual, é impossível deixar de situar as pessoas mais idosas entre as mais desprotegidas e mais frágeis do nosso sistema social. Contudo, sempre em volta em mitos e estereótipos, a vivência da “velhice” é um desafio exigente com matizes diferenciadores em função das categorias de pertença e dos contextos e lugares do mundo onde é vivida. Em Portugal, a população com mais de 65 anos é já cerca de 22% (INE, 2018), (...) Neste sentido, discutir envelhecimento(s) implica discutir o idadismo - discriminação e aceção de pessoas em razão da sua idade -, bem como as relações de poder implícitas (...) Recorrendo à teoria de interseccionalidade, interessou-nos particularmente visibilizar o impacto do género nas vivências das sexualidades.

The Lives of LGBT Older Adults

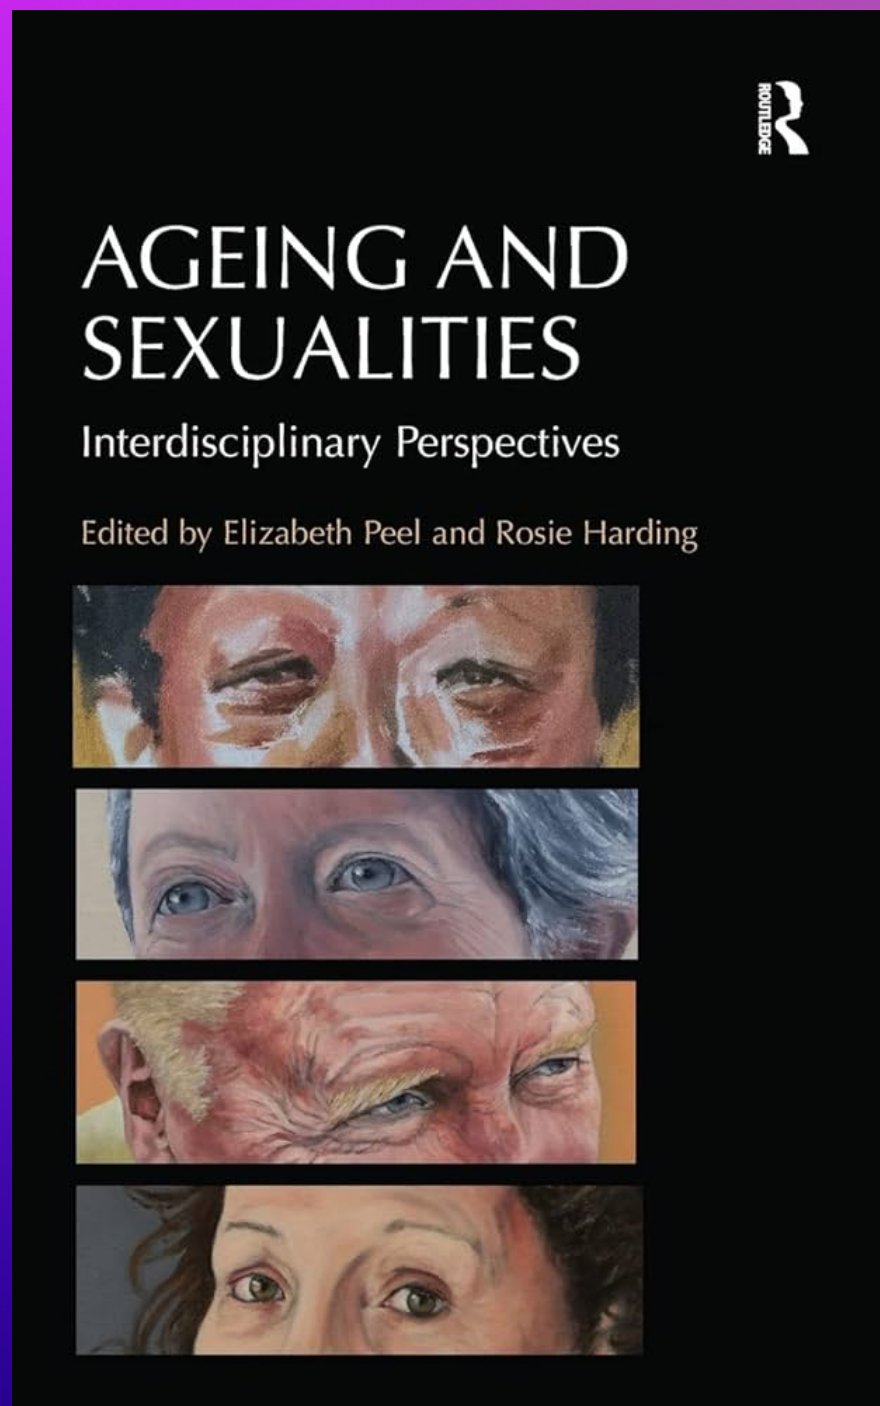

Nancy A. Orel, Christine A. Fruhauf (Eds.)

Abstract

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered (LGBT) older adults have unique and varying physical and mental health needs. Yet their experiences have often been ignored in gerontological and LGBT studies. (...). This book uses a life course perspective to investigate how LGBT older adults have been shaped by social stigma and systematic discrimination. (...) elders grew up in a particularly oppressive time, which continues to impact their well-being. However, these individuals have also developed coping mechanisms to adapt to stigma, discrimination (...). Thus, the book explores not only the challenges and needs of this population but also their strengths and resilience.

Ageing and Sexualities. Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Elizabeth Peel, Rosie Harding (Eds.)

Abstract

This book showcases developments in theory, research and practice regarding sexuality and ageing, considering the differences as well as similarities between and among ageing heterosexual and LGBT older people. Identifying the questions central to future social scientific research on ageing and sexuality, (...) Interdisciplinary in scope and offering the latest research from scholars in the UK, Australasia and Africa, Ageing and Sexualities constitutes an integrated approach to the conceptual and practical challenges of understanding the interplay of ageing and sexuality in contemporary society.

Queer Aging. The gayby boomers and a new frontier for gerontology

Jesus Ramirez-Valles

Abstract

The aging of gay men is as revolutionary as the movements for gay liberation and AIDS. With the aging of the Baby Boomer generation, we are witnessing a new phenomenon: gay men entering old age. This event is transforming our views of old age; the composition of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities; and the field of gerontology. Queer Aging addresses the timely question: What is like to be an older gay man? It brings the stories and the voices of a diverse group of men—black, Latino, and white—to uncover the aging experience and examine how race, AIDS, and age together are shaping the lives of these men.

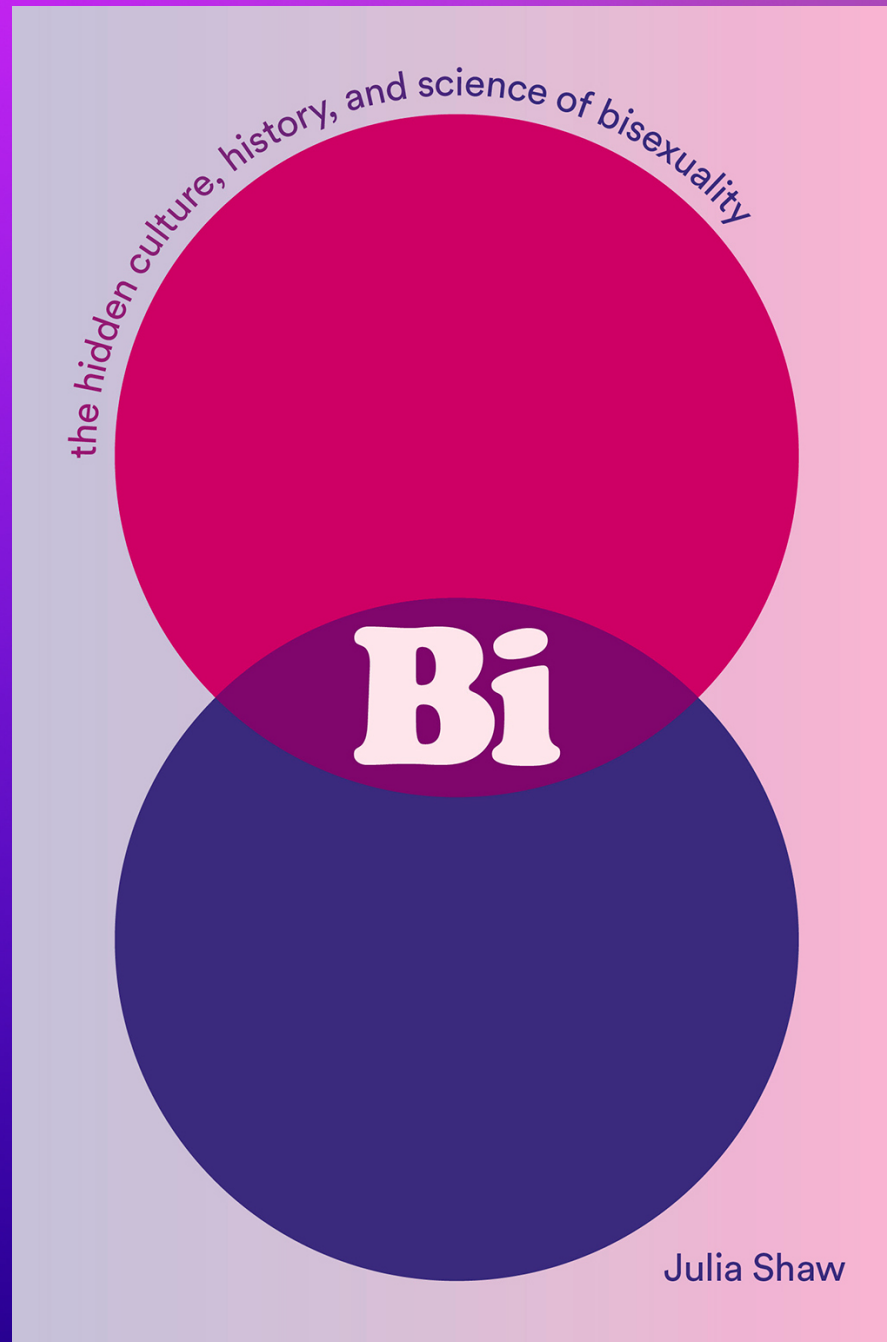

Out of time: The pleasures & perils of ageing

Lynne Segal

Abstract

*In Out of Time, leading thinker Lynne Segal examines her life and surveys the work and lives of other writers and artists to explore the pleasures and perils of growing old. Following in the footsteps of Simone de Beauvoir—who in her mid-fifties mourned 'never again!' and yet was energetically writing in her sixties and seventies—Segal mixes memoir, literature and polemic to examine the inevitable consequences of staying alive.*

Bi: The Hidden Culture, History, and Science of Bisexuality

Julia Shaw

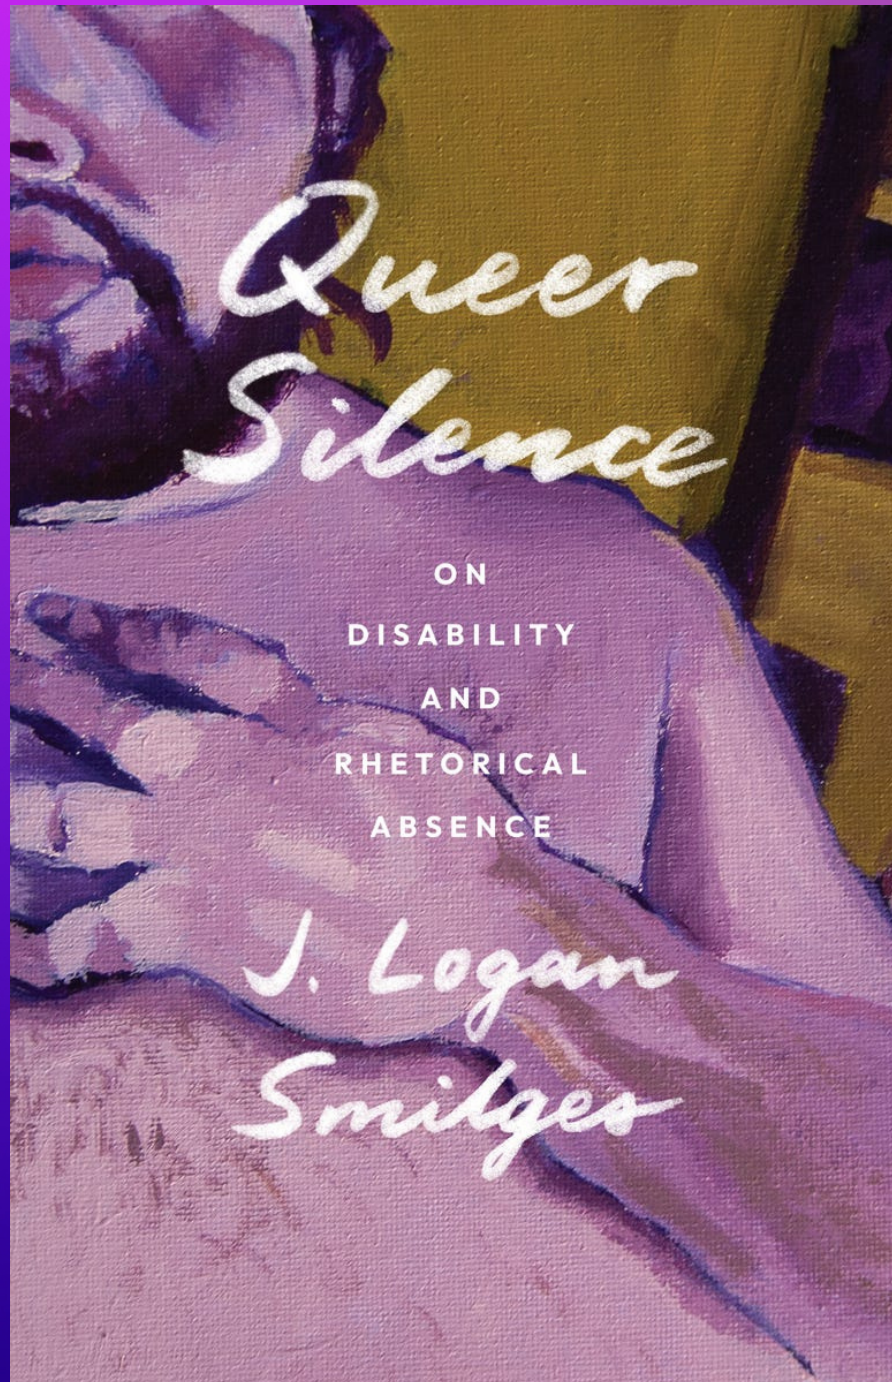

Abstract

In BI: The Hidden Culture, History, and Science of Bisexuality, Shaw probes the science and culture of attraction beyond the binary. From the invention of heterosexuality to the history of the Kinsey scale, as well as asylum seekers trying to defend their bisexuality in a court of law, there is so much more to explore than most have ever realized. Drawing on her own original research—and her own experiences—this is a personal and scientific manifesto; it's an exploration of the complexities of the human sexual experience and a declaration of love and respect for the nonconformists among us.

Queer Silence. On disability and rhetorical absence

J.Logan Smilges

Abstract

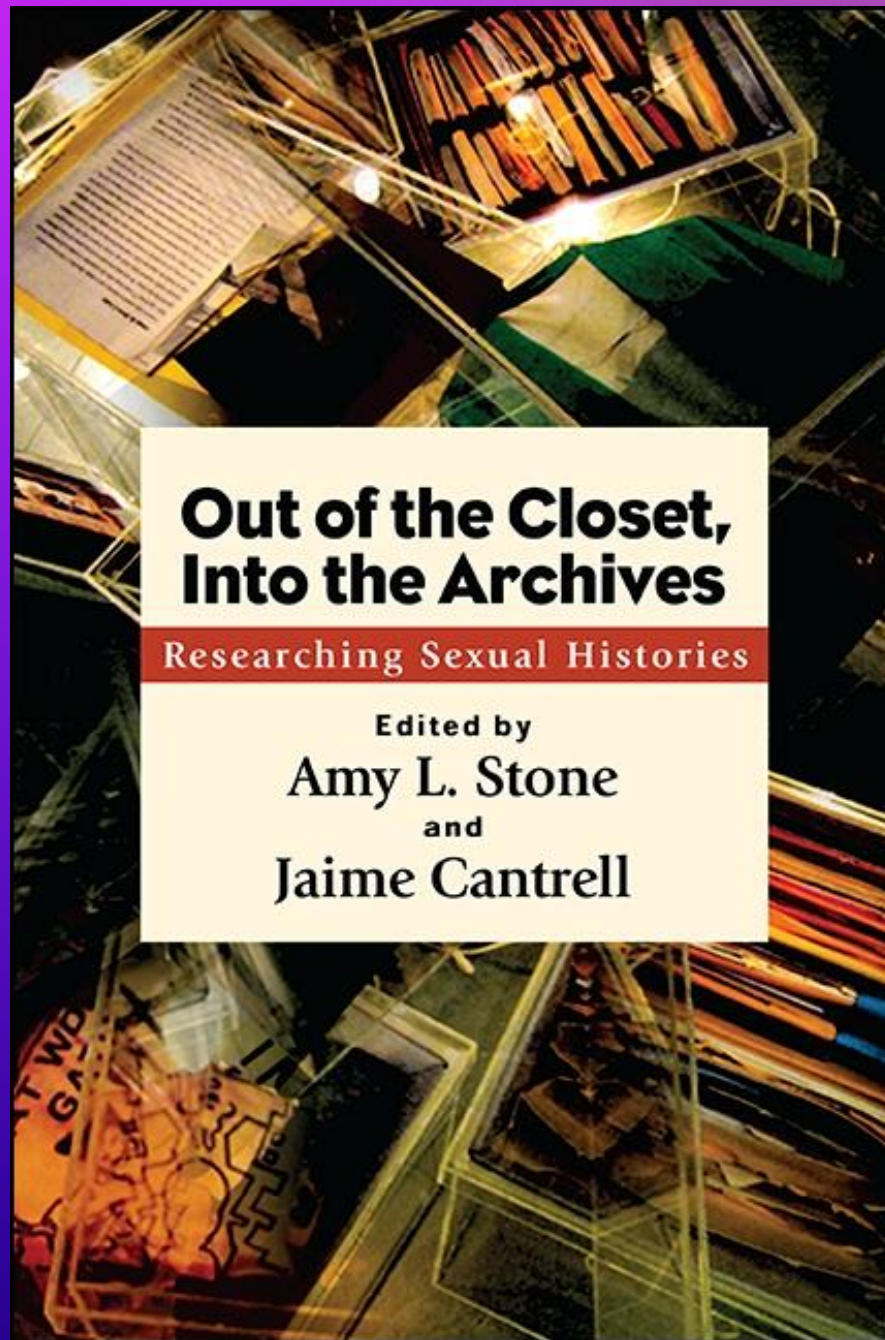

Championing the liberatory potential of silence to address the fraught disability politics of queerness

While silence is often linked to voicelessness, complicity, and even death in queer culture, Queer Silence insists that silence can be a generative and empowering mode of survival. Triangulating insights from queer studies, disability studies, and rhetorical studies, J. Logan Smilges explores what silence can mean for people whose bodyminds signify more powerfully than their words.

Out of the closet, into the archives : researching sexual histories

Amy L. Stone and Jaime Cantrell (eds.)

Abstract

Out of the Closet, Into the Archives takes readers inside the experience of how it feels to do queer archival research and queer research in the archive. The archive, much like the closet, exposes various levels of public and privateness—recognition, awareness, refusal, impulse, disclosure, framing, silence, cultural intelligibility—each mediated and determined through subjective insider/outsider ways of knowing.

Now You See Me: Lesbian Life Stories

Jane Traies (ed.)

'An absolute gem' – Clare Summerskill

NOW YOU SEE ME

Lesbian Life Stories

Edited by Jane Traies

Abstract

Now You See Me is a collection of powerful personal accounts which bring to light previously undocumented lesbian lives. Jane Traies has been recording the life histories of older women who identify as lesbian for nearly a decade and the narratives in Now You See Me are drawn from this archive of 'hidden histories'. The stories are told in the women's own words and vividly recreate a time when being lesbian meant either hiding your true identity or paying the price for breaking society's rules. The personal is still political in this moving and inspiring book.

Contains 20 fascinating life stories, commentary from the editor, and black and white photographs.
