

International Workshop:

Contemporary configurations of racism and Eurocentrism: debates on academic and political discourses and practices

22-23 May 2012

Organisation: Silvia R. Maeso (CES) & Marta Araújo (CES)

Programme

Tuesday, May 22

9:30 – 13:00

Eurocentrism, 'race'/racism and the politics of knowledge production |

Coordination: Silvia R. Maeso (CES-University of Coimbra)

Opening interventions: Ramón Grosfoguel, Branwen Gruffydd Jones, Nelson Maldonado-Torres, Barnor Hesse and Boaventura de Sousa Santos

14:30-17:00

The politics of research and policy-making on (anti-)racism (I): Europe and the 'immigrant imaginary' |

Coordination: Salman Sayyid (CERS-University of Leeds/University of South Australia)

Opening interventions: Alana Lentin, Katy Sian and Julia Suárez-Krabbe

17:30 - 18:30

Debate with the workshop attendees

Wednesday, May 23

9:30 – 12:30

The politics of research and policy-making on (anti-)racism (II): Islamophobia |

Coordination: Frank Peter (University of Bern/European University Viadrina)

Opening interventions: Abdoolkarim Vakil, Ramón Grosfoguel and Salman Sayyid

14:00 - 16:30

Current key debates on 'race', racism and anti-racism: colonialism, slavery, public history and education in Europe and the Americas |

Coordination: Marta Araújo (CES-University of Coimbra)

Opening interventions: Barnor Hesse, Lars Jensen and Kwame Nimako

17:00-18:00

Debate with the workshop attendees